

Suzette

Media Kit

Pop
rock

Reviving the Y2K spirit with a pop rock punch.

Where nostalgia meets electric energy on stage!

Management
suzette.la.music@gmail.com
@ Suzette.xxo

2024

About Suzette

Born and raised in Mexico, she eventually made her way to her dream city: Los Angeles.

Suzette has been dancing and singing since childhood, growing up in a musical household where learning and playing with instruments was easy and fun. .

“Suzette’s journey from Mexico to Los Angeles is a story of passion and perseverance, so inspiring!”

With a passion for pop music and dance, Suzette combines her vibrant cultural roots with the energy and creativity of LA.

“Nostalgia never sounded this Fresh”

Her performances reflect her lifelong dedication to music and dance, captivating audiences with her dynamic presence and heartfelt expression.

vintage vibes future

HITS

Her music has echoes of Y2K, with modern beats and catchy lyrics – giving a fun twist to pop rock in spanish.

Live SHOWS

Suzette's high-energy shows, accompanied by six dynamic dancers, have been a hit in both intimate venues and large stages. Her blend of synths, drums, bass, and guitar creates an electrifying live experience.

LYRICS THAT TELL STORIES OF TODAY WITH THE HEARTBEAT OF YESTERDAY.

Collaborations

Suzette has collaborated with top producers, composers, artists, and songwriters, including the talented Jesús Flores, featured "25 Mexican Projects You Must Have on Your Playlist" -Rolling Stones Mexico, and Josie Andrews, a renamed film maker from LA who directed her first music video "Blah Blah!"

The voice of a new era

@ Suzette xxo

@ Suzette.musica

Management
suzette.la.music@gmail.com
+1 (818) 351-5679
Los Angeles CA